*THE FISCAL YEAR FOR THE UNIFIED JUDICIAL SYSTEM OF ALABAMA IS FROM OCTOBER 1 THRU SEPTEMBER 30.

Alabama's Unified Judicial System

The Judicial Article Implementation Act (Act 1205) of 1975 revised the Alabama Court System and prescribed the pattern for its operation.

The major changes included:

- Over 400 trial courts were reorganized into a unified system.
- Judges were required to be lawyers (Probate Judges excluded).
- Uniform jurisdictions were established for all trial courts.
- Judges were prohibited from re-election or appointment after age 70.
- Authority was granted to the Supreme Court to adopt rules pertaining to the administration of courts governing practice and procedure.
- Provisions provided for the adoption of "Canons of Judicial Ethics."
- Provisions were made for the flexible assignment of judges.
- A central judicial administration system was built into the Constitution.
- Provisions were made for a Judicial Compensation Commission.
- A Judicial Inquiry Commission and a Court of the Judiciary were created.

Amendment 328 of the Alabama Constitution of 1901 further provided for the exclusive judicial power of the State to be vested in a Unified Judicial System, to become effective January 17, 1977. Today, the Alabama Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals, Court of Civil Appeals and the Administrative Office of Courts all operate from within a single location in Montgomery, Alabama.

The Alabama Supreme Court, Alabama's court of last resort, is composed of a Chief Justice and eight Associate Justices. All members of the Court are elected in statewide elections to six-year terms. The Supreme Court has general supervisory authority over all courts in the State and the power to review any judgment of these courts. In addition, the Supreme Court has the authority to make administrative rules and regulations to ensure the efficient and speedy administration of justice.

To facilitate the decision-making process, the Supreme Court has traditionally been divided into two divisions with a panel of four justices each. The Chief Justice sits on both divisions. If the five members of a division disagree on the disposition of a particular case, the case must be submitted to the entire Court for resolution. The Court's internal rules require consideration by the full Court of petitions for certiorari review in capital cases in which the death penalty is imposed, cases declaring a statute unconstitutional, advisory opinions to the Governor or the Legislature, utility rate cases; cases overruling a previous decision of the Supreme Court, and petitions for certiorari review in instances where the Supreme Court is reversing a judgment of the Court of Criminal Appeals or the Court of Civil Appeals.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The Alabama Court of Criminal Appeals is a five-judge court having exclusive appellate jurisdiction of all criminal cases, including all post-conviction writs arising from there. The Court has authority to issue remedial writs necessary to give it general superintendence and control over all trial courts exercising jurisdiction in criminal proceedings. Judgments of the Court of Criminal Appeals are subject to discretionary review by the Alabama Supreme Court. During the 2003 Term, the Court was assisted by Retired Judge John Patterson.

Filings - During the 2003 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals had a total caseload of 3,627 cases, of which 2,291 were new filings. The 2,291 new filings in the 2003 Term represents a ten year low in the number of new cases filed. The Court's filings were down 8.8 percent from the filings five years earlier and down 13.5 percent from the number of filings in the preceding term. Even with the significant drop in filings in the 2003 Term, the Court of Criminal Appeals still has one of the highest per judge caseloads among all intermediate appellate courts in the United States. With 458 filings per judge in the 2003 Term, per judge caseload for this Court is more than double the national average of 215 filings per judge according to the intermediate appellate court caseload statistics compiled by the National Center for State Courts.

For the second year in a row, the Court issued more than 1,900 decisions in submitted cases.

Dispositions - In the 2003 Term, the Court disposed of 2,586 cases - - 2,182 appeals and 404 petitions. Because the Court's throughput in the 2003 Term was at 113%, the Court started the 2004 Term with 1,044 pending cases, 293 fewer cases than were pending at the start of the 2003 Term. This figure is the lowest pending caseload at the start of a new term in the last 13 years.

Decisions - The Court of Criminal Appeals issued 1,648 decisions in submitted appeals during the 2003 Term. Of these decisions, judgments were affirmed in 1,391 appeals; judgments were reversed and causes were remanded in 39 appeals; judgments were reversed and the causes were rendered in six appeals; 56 appeals were dismissed; 155 appeals were remanded to the trial courts with directions; and one appeal was affirmed in part and reversed in part. Written opinions were released in 223 appeals and in 19 original petitions. Memorandum decisions were released in 1,377 appeals and in one original petition. Out of the 404 original petitions that were disposed in the 2003 Term, 18 petitions were granted by the Court either in whole or in part.

Time Standards - In 1989 the Supreme Court, by order, set as a goal in direct appeal cases a 280-day time standard that ran from notice of appeal or the filing of a petition to the initial decision. In April 1995, the original goal was modified to conform to the Time Standards Reference Models recommended by the American Bar Association. The current goal is to issue rulings in 75 percent of all cases within 290 days from their start and in 95 percent of all cases within 365 days. In the 2003 Term, 93.48 percent of all the initial decisions by the Court of Criminal Appeals were released within the 290-day goal and 97.32 percent were released within 365-day goal. In this term, the average time from start to initial decision in submitted cases increased by 19 days, from 175 days in the 2002 Term to 194 days in the 2003 Term.

Alabama Court of Civil Appeals

Craig Pittman, John B. Crawley, Sharon G. Yates (Presiding), William C. Thompson and Glenn Murdock

The Court of Civil Appeals, composed of a presiding judge and four associate judges, was created by the Alabama Legislature in 1969. The Court has original appellate jurisdiction in all civil appeals where the amount in controversy does not exceed $50,000; in all appeals from administrative agencies, other than the Alabama Public Service Commission; in all appeals in workers' compensation cases; and in all appeals in domestic relations cases, including annulment, divorce, adoption, and child custody. All decisions of the Court are made en banc. Each judge is required to review each case submitted to the Court.

For FY 2003, the Court of Civil Appeals reported a total caseload of 2,136 cases. This figure includes 1,230 new filings and 864 cases that, at the close of the previous term, were not ready for submission, were on rehearing, or were on review to the Supreme Court of Alabama.

The Court of Civil Appeals disposed of 1,272 cases. Of this number, 328 cases or 25.8% were decided with written opinions.

Case filings in FY 2003 decreased by 4.9% from FY 2002. For the five-year period, FY 1999 through FY 2003, filings decreased by 13.7%.

The total caseload of the court decreased by 3.5% from the previous year. During FY 2003, the court disposed of 1,272 cases: 328 were decided with opinion; 443 affirmed without opinion, and 501 disposed before submission. The average time from notice of appeal to written opinion was 244 days, compared to 281 days for FY 2002.

Of the 829 cases disposed by opinion and summary affirmance, the Court affirmed the judgment of 72.98%; reversed the judgment in 14.84%; in 4.58% of the cases the judgment was affirmed in part and reversed in part, and 7.60% were disposed by dismissal or other reason.

Supreme Court and State Law Library

Today the Library, housed in Alabama's Judicial Building, serves the Alabama Appellate Courts, the Alabama Judicial System, and the people of the State of Alabama.

The Supreme Court and State Law Library may be contacted at:

334-242-4347

The Alabama Supreme Court and State Law Library is the oldest law library in Alabama. Established in 1828 as the Library Society of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court, it was a private, nonprofit organization with the purpose of providing a library for the "exclusive use of the Bench and Bar of the Supreme Court of the State." Today, the Law Library, a state agency, serves the Alabama Supreme Court, the Courts of Criminal and Civil Appeals, and all citizens of the State.

The Law Library has approximately 230,000 volumes in its collection, making it the second largest law library in the state. The Library is also one of the oldest U.S. Government Depository libraries in the United States, having been designated a depository in 1884. Currently, the Law Library occupies approximately 38,000 square feet. It is a public law library, and its hours of operation are 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. The Law Library collection contains all of the reported decisions of the state and federal appellate courts in the United States, and the statutes of all 50 states and the District of Columbia, plus Acts of Congress, the United States Code and the regulations of the various agencies of the U.S. Government. The Law Library's legal periodical collection is one of the best in the State with more than 1000 titles, while its rare book collection is considered one of the finest in the Southeastern United States. Unique to the collection are the briefs of Alabama Supreme Court cases beginning in 1965 and the papers of the Alabama Judicial College.

Beyond the role of the traditional library, the Supreme Court and State Law Library continues to pursue a strategic plan to remain on the forefront of technology. To this end, the Law Library provides public access to WESTLAW, a computer-assisted legal research service, so that all users can use WESTLAW in the Law Library at no cost to them. In this same way, the Law Library provides WESTLAW access to the entire judicial branch of government so that judges, clerks, and other judicial branch employees will have access to legal information at their fingertips. Additionally, the Law Library has its own computerized public access catalog known as Aladdin, which includes the online catalogs of the Jefferson County Public Law Library, the Montgomery County Public Law Library, and the Elbert Parsons Public Law Library in Huntsville. Aladdin can be accessed from the Law Library web site, www.alalinc.net.

The Law Library also maintains Alalinc, an information service providing access to electronic copies of Alabama's appellate court opinions as they are released. Opinions are fully searchable using an advanced search engine that allows users a large range of search capabilities. The Law Library manages a state-of-the-art computer training lab equipped with workstations to accommodate an instructor and up to 18 students. Library staff offers classes in basic computing, word processing, and Internet usage, while judicial branch agencies use the lab to train numerous state and local officials on various automation systems.

The Law Library serves as the archives for the appellate courts and is responsible for preserving and disseminating the judicial history of Alabama. The various museum areas and exhibits throughout the building are designed and created by law library staff, who also coordinate all judicial building tours.

Administrative Office of Courts

The Chief Justice of the Alabama Supreme Court is the chief administrative officer of the State's court system and is authorized to appoint an Administrative Director of Courts and other personnel to assist him in the performance of his administrative responsibilities. This constitutionally-created administration overseeing Alabama's Unified Judiciary is called the Administrative Office of Courts.

The Alabama Unified Judicial System is a state-funded court system consisting of the Supreme Court and two intermediate courts of appeal, the Court of Civil Appeals and the Court of Criminal Appeals. The system also includes the trial courts of general jurisdiction (the Circuit Courts) and the courts of limited jurisdiction (the District Courts, the Probate Courts, and the Municipal Courts). The Administrative Office of Courts (AOC), under the direction of the Administrative Director of Courts, is charged with providing the centralized, state-level administrative support necessary to the operation of the State court system, which includes the development of improved procedures and systems to increase the operational capacity of the courts, the collection and dissemination of information necessary for the development of policy and the efficient operation of the courts. Alabama was one of the first states in the nation to have a unified state court system with uniform procedures and centralized administrative services. The Unified Judicial System of Alabama has been in existence since 1977.

The Administrative Office of Courts carries out its responsibilities through a network of specialized divisions. This necessary link within the court system successfully implements plans addressing the training, educational and developmental needs of officials and employees of the Unified Judicial System. These tasks are implemented in part by and through the Alabama Judicial College, along with the support of statewide technological expertise and implementation of the Management Information Systems Division. The AOC also houses basic support departments such as Personnel and Finance, but there exists more specialized departments such as the Family Court Division (est. June 2001), the Trial Court Services Division and the Legal Division.

The AOC is most specifically made up of talented individuals from many walks of life serving the needs of their fellow citizens.

Alabama was one of the first states with a unified state court system along with uniform procedures and centralized administrative services.

Administrative Office of Courts

Divisions

Personnel

The Personnel Division provides services for the Unified Judicial System officials (at the appellate and local level), their employees, trial court officials and employees, and the Administrative Office of Courts' staff.

Personnel maintains thousands of employment records and coordinates human resources for the trial courts, including: recruiting, testing, appointments, evaluations, discipline, benefits, retirement and other separations for over 400 elected officials. Payroll and leave accounts are audited by this division, merit raises are coordinated, and pay and classification recommendations are initiated. Training and counseling on employment situations and coordination with the Legal Division for disposition of a variety of issues are important aspects of the Personnel Division.

Finance

The Finance Division is comprised of the following sections: expense accounting, grants, budgets, purchasing, payroll, the print shop, records and space management. In addition to fulfilling responsibilities in these areas, the Finance Division also provides technical assistance to the trial courts, resolves questions regarding appropriate dockets, fees and fines, and serves as liaison with the appellate courts regarding fiscal matters.

Legal

The Legal Division is responsible for providing the Chief Justice, the Administrative Director of Courts, circuit and district judges, clerks and AOC division directors with assistance in legal matters relating to the daily operation and administration of the Unified Judicial System. The attorneys on staff provide legal research to judges and other court officials in addition to providing them general legal opinions, updates on changes in statutory law and appellate court decisions, court manuals and approved UJS forms. The Legal Division also works cooperatively with the Attorney General's office in providing Attorney General opinions that may impact the UJS and request for assistance for legal representation for UJS officials.

Education Division

The Alabama Judicial College provides educational programs, regional workshops, and conferences for officials and employees of the circuit, district & municipal courts. They also offer orientation programs for judges and clerks. The Judicial College coordinates monthly calendars of internal/external training opportunities and events, schedules classrooms and provides all logistical support for meetings and education.

As a whole, this branch of the court system successfully implements plans addressing the training, educational and developmental needs of officials and employees of the Unified Judicial System.

Administrative Office of Courts

Divisions

Management Information Systems

Management Information Systems provides the support necessary for the day-to-day business operations of the Unified Judicial System both in the trial courts and the Administrative Office of Courts. The Management Information Systems aids the enhancement of administrative functions using technology and coordinates with state agencies regarding sharing of services and information. This division also provides centralized child support processing for the state, which allows for interfacing with the Department of Human Resources. The Management Information Systems makes available public information to the criminal justice community, social and juvenile services and the public as a whole. Management Information Systems offers on-line services to all 67 counties at all court sites, juvenile offices and pardon and parole offices. Finally, Management Information Systems maintains current UJS applications as well as new developments and upgrades.

Trial Court Services Division

The Trial Court Services Division provides five areas of service to the AOC. First, this division offers court administration technical assistance in automation, case management, jury management, uniform traffic ticket procedures, and educational support. Second, this division provides a liaison between court and legislative officials on court-related matters. Trial Court Services Division oversees judicial assignments when a judge has recused or cannot serve for some other reason. Fourth, this division oversees the statewide imaging program for the condensing of judicial records and gives assistance to State Municipal Courts and the UJS magistrate program. Finally, this division compiles statewide trial court statistics.

Divisions Continued

Family Court Divisions / Alabama Judicial College

The Family Court Division provides services in seven different, but related, areas for the state judicial system. The goal of this division is to provide a wide array of services to assist families coming into the court system in Alabama.

First, staff assists judges and clerks in the development of unified family court systems, as requested. Technical assistance was provided to several circuits in 2003 to initiate family courts. Second, this division oversees the Title IV-D Child Support Enforcement Program by developing contracts with 19 counties for court referees to assist judges. This program is a collaborative effort between the AOC and the Department of Human Resources (DHR). Third, staff also works with the state DHR to provide timely processing of dependency cases and to ensure that dependent children are placed in safe, permanent homes as quickly as possible through the Court Improvement Project. Fourth, this division manages the federal Access and Visitation Grant program to improve non-custodial parents access to and visitation with their children. Using a broad-based committee of professionals and advocates, literature for children and parents have been produced and mediators have been trained to assist in this process. Fifth, staff have developed and maintained the Judicial Volunteer Program in twelve counties. Over 291 volunteers statewide have contributed at least 3,500 hours of their time to Juvenile Conference Committees to intervene with troubled youth as an alternative to traditional court sanctions. They have also developed a group of volunteers who provide mediation in small claims cases. There are 95 volunteers who have contributed over 1,000 hours to this project. Sixth, this division manages the State Juvenile Probation Officer Program including establishment of statewide guidelines, certification and training standards. Finally, this division administers the Court Referral Education and Court Referral Officer programs to work with defendants with substance abuse problems. Over 26,578 defendants were evaluated and referred for education or treatment in 2003. Of these defendants, 6,767 were placed in the Level I education program, 10,377 were placed in the Level II education programs. The AOC certifies and contracts with 28 agencies to provide this education and 97 CROs to evaluate defendants and provide monitoring sessions throughout the state. This also involves coordination with community correction programs and drug courts across the state.

The AOC is most specifically made up of talented individuals from all walks of life serving the needs of their fellow citizens.

Budget of the Judiciary

The Finance Division at AOC is comprised of the following sections: expenses accounting (payment of purchases and services), purchasing (requisition and approval of purchases), grants management, payroll, printing, and the budget.

Budget responsibilities includes preparation of the budget request, preparation of an in-house working budget called the operations plan, and the management of that plan through the year. The budget request is submitted to the governor annually for review and for his judicial budget recommendation. His recommendation is included in the executive budget presented to the legislature where it can be enacted into law as recommended or as they see fit to alter. Once the budget becomes law, the operations plan is developed at a spending level that can maintain operations throughout the fiscal year.

The Unified Judicial System's FY 2003 budget remained inadequate for the second consecutive year. Although the budget increased approximately $2.2 million, mandated and business costs increases outpaced budget growth causing concern that layoffs would occur sometime during the year. However, the UJS received a $3 million supplemental appropriation in FY 2003 that curtailed layoffs.

Cuts initiated in FY 2002 continued into FY 2003 because of the budget shortfall. They included an across-the board hiring freeze, educational conferences were cancelled, temporary employees (including 170 temporary judicial aides/bailiffs) remained vacant, all out-of-state travel was cancelled, in-state travel, materials, supplies and equipment were severely restricted, and merit raises and promotions were suspended. These budget cuts coupled with the $3 million supplemental appropriation allowed avoidance of the layoff of full-time employees and UJS finished the year in the black. When mandated cost increases are considered, the chart below shows an overall decline in the budget since FY 1986. In FY 2003, the UJS budget was $1.3 million less than the 1986 general fund budget after mandates.

Judicial Inquiry Commission and Court of the Judiciary

The Judicial Inquiry Commission has nine members. The Supreme Court appoints one appellate judge. The Circuit Judges' Association appoints two circuit judges. The Lieutenant Governor appoints one district judge who is subject to Senate confirmation. Two attorneys are appointed by the Board of Bar Commissioners. Three non-lawyer citizens are appointed by the Governor, subject to Senate confirmation. Commission members are appointed for terms of four years.

The Judicial Inquiry Commission considers and investigates complaints of misconduct made against judges of the State Judicial System. It has authority to receive and initiate its own complaints, conduct investigations, and file and prosecute complaints in the Court of the Judiciary. These complaints charge violations of the Alabama Canons of Judicial Ethics, misconduct in office, or failure to perform judicial duties. The Commission also renders advisory opinions to judges if needed.

The Court of the Judiciary is a nine-member body that hears complaints filed by the Judicial Inquiry Commission. The Court is composed of one judge from an appellate court, other than the Supreme Court of Alabama, who shall be selected by the Supreme Court of Alabama and shall serve as Chief Judge of the Court of the Judiciary. The Court also includes two judges from the circuit courts, who shall be selected by the Circuit Judges' Association; one district judge who shall be selected by the District Judges' Association; two members of the State Bar who shall be selected by the governing body of the Alabama State Bar; two persons who are not lawyers who shall be appointed by the Governor; and one person appointed by the Lieutenant Governor. Members appointed by the Governor and Lieutenant Governor shall be subject to Senate confirmation before serving.

The Court has the authority to enter the following sanctions for a violation of a Canon of Judicial Ethics: removal from office, suspension with or without pay, censure, retirement of a judge or such other sanctions as may be prescribed by law.

Decisions of the Court of the Judiciary may be appealed to the Supreme Court of Alabama, which reviews the record of proceedings on the law and the facts. The Supreme Court of Alabama adopts rules governing the procedures of the Court of the Judiciary. Counsel for the prosecution of cases before the Court of the Judiciary is provided by the State Attorney General's Office. Circuit, District, Municipal & Probate

The Alabama Constitution, in addition to providing for the appellate courts of the State, provides for a trial court of general jurisdiction known as the Circuit Court; a trial court of limited jurisdiction known as the District Court; a Probate Court and such Municipal Courts as may be provided by law.

The State of Alabama is now divided into 41 judicial circuits, numbered and composed of counties. A 41st Circuit was created during fiscal year 2001 when the circuit formerly known as the 30th Judicial Circuit was split. Jury trials within the State of Alabama occur at the circuit court level.

There is an office of the circuit clerk in each of the 67 counties and one in the Bessemer Division of Jefferson County. The duties of the circuit clerks include the issuance of process and the maintenance of all court records. The circuit clerk is responsible for the same duties as they apply to the district court when there is no clerk appointed to that office. There is currently only one district clerk in the State of Alabama.

Sessions of the district court are required to be held in each county seat. Although the district court is considered to be a "court of record," transcripts or reports of the proceedings of this Court are not required by law. All cases are tried without a jury.

Any given municipality of the State of Alabama, if it elects to do so, holds its own court proceedings according to the limitations provided by law. If the municipal court is abolished by that governing body, jurisdiction is transferred to the appropriate district court.

The probate courts in each county of the State have original and general jurisdictions over very specific matters delineated by statute. While constitutionally a part of the Alabama Judicial System, the probate courts are not included in the system's budget and are administered locally by the respective probate judge. Funding is generated through the county governments or through fees generated in probate court.
